BIOGRAPHY

The Kutle Khan Project is Khan's voyage into a world of music beyond boundaries; where he delves into his folk roots and draws from his musical experience and influence of collaborating with musicians from different cultures. What remains is a perfectly distilled blend of musical styles with a strong Rajasthan folk sensibility. He has performed on various stages across the world; His music is as seductive as it is rhythmically complex. He embodies the rich melodic and sophisticated rhythmic traditions of Rajasthani folk music and his performances are informed by his understanding of contemporary Indian and Western musical traditions.

"Khan is the voice behind popular song Param Sundari & he has given his voice for movie afwaah & dahaad web series. He also sung for few tollywood movies like Ambala, Action etc". With this, Kutle Khan produces the most passionate and energetic live Sufi and Indian Folk. Coming from a family of manganiyar musicians, this master of the khartal began playing music at the age of 8, learning every instrument he could get his hands on. A singer as well as a musician Khan not only plays the dholak, khartal, bhapang, harmonium, sarangi, morchang, proving that there's no percussion he can't play, he also sings soulful renditions & also writes & composes his own songs
